

11.go big

"Your world is as big as you make it." - Georgia Douglas Johnson

Living small sucks. There is no reason to be trapped in a tiny existence. You can go anywhere in the world for not a lot of money these days, what with all the discount internet travel sites. You can be who you want to be, even if it's just online for now. You can get up on stage at your local open mic and belt out that song you wrote. You can wear your favourite outfit for no reason.

You have a dream. We all have a dream. And when we get there, we find ourselves with a new dream. We are here to expand our horizons, our creative potential, to live as fully as possible.

Going big doesn't have to mean instant fulfillment of fantasy. Going big can be like I said, wearing your favourite outfit for no reason. It's one step closer to living the dream.
