

13.be hot

“From the moment I was six I felt sexy. And let me tell you it was hell, sheer hell, waiting to do something about it.” - Bette Davis

I don't care what your situation is...if you are alive, you can be hot.
You know you are, anyway, so why fight it?

How many of us, in our wildest dreams, when we're blissfully living the lives we know we deserve, are not sexy?
It doesn't make sense, does it?

The key is this: you don't have to dress like a slut to be sexy.
Nor do you have to be a perfect size 6. Confidence and passion are sexy. Being yourself - your joyful, blissful self - is sexy.

“Any piece of clothing can be sexy with a quietly passionate woman
inside it.” - unknown
