*"The riches of life, the love and joy and exhilaration of life can be found only with an upward look. This is an exciting world. It's cram-packed with opportunity. Great moments wait around every corner."
- Richard M. DeVos*

When you are in the flow of bringing your dreams into reality, discovering the power of your true nature, it is a rush.

Each of these moments was a peak exhilarating experience in my life:

1. My first published newspaper column.
2. My first royalty statement.
3. The first gig with my band.
4. Starting a business.

I was making money doing what I loved. Those were all fun things. It's not all about the money, but it's easier to illustrate that way, particularly if you've been raised with the notion that you have to be sensible at the cost of your true creative genius. Your true creative genius of course, is the real you, the part that's going to make a change and shake things up, whether it's writing, singing, inventing clean power sources or bringing community gardening to your neighbourhood. Damn, it's exciting!
